

WEEK 3

AT HOME DISCUSSION GUIDE

BIG IDEA

I can take risks for God.

THE BIBLE

Story Title: Joshua 2:1-15;
(Philippians 4:10-13)

QUESTIONS

- What risks did the spies take by going to Jericho?
- What risks did Rahab take by protecting the spies?
- What risks did Paul take by building new churches for God?
- Read Philippians 4:13. What does this verse tell us about God's response to your taking risks for God?
- Why is it important to take risks for God?
- When do you think it is okay to take a risk?
- What is one risk you think you can take for God?

ACTIVITY

Give each kid three strands of red embroidery floss tied together at one end. Encourage them to either twist or braid the strands according to their ability. When finished, ask them to tie the bracelet they have just created around the wrist of one of the other kids.

Rahab let the spies out of the city by hanging a scarlet rope out of the window for them to climb down. Let's use these bracelets to remember to take risks for God!

MEMORY VERSE OF THE MONTH: 1 Samuel 12:24 (NIV)

"But be sure to fear the Lord and serve him faithfully with all your heart
