

WEEK 2

AT HOME GUIDE

MISSION POSSIBLE

Some people love spy stories for the action, gadgets, or disguises, but there's one thing no spy story could do without: an exciting mission. As followers of Jesus, we don't have any gadgets or disguises, but we do have a mission. It's our mission to share the good news of Jesus with the world. But that mission isn't always easy to accomplish. In this 4-week series, we'll discover that joining Jesus on His mission isn't easy, but it's not impossible. It's a mission that requires us to be real, be helpful, be listeners, and be ready.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEA

Be helpful.

THE BIBLE

Matthew 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-9;
Acts 14:1-17; James 1:22-27

- What's one message that would be difficult to communicate without words?
- Without naming names, what are some of the ways people's actions sometimes don't line up with their words?
- If you were one of the disciples or apostles in the Bible, what part of your mission do you think would be the most difficult or scary?
- How do you think the disciples' and apostles' words and actions worked together to make their message clear?
- What are some of the needs that exist in your school? In your neighborhood? In your family?
- What's the number one reason you aren't doing more to meet the needs of people around you?
- How do you think helping to meet those needs might help you share the message of Jesus with the people in your life?
- Read James 1:22-27. How does this passage connect to our conversation today? What idea or phrase stands out to you personally, and why?
- In your school, community, or family, what's one way you're going to be helpful . . .
 - With your words?
 - With your actions?
 - With your relationships?
- Who is someone you'd like to talk with about Jesus? Why do you want to talk with them? What's your next step?
